Small business owners have big ideas—but not big budgets. Before Wahmcart, many entrepreneurs were forced to settle for free shopping carts with limited features and minimal security, or clumsy “Buy It Now” buttons that made their sites seem amateurish.

With Wahmcart, today’s busy, budget-minded business owners finally have access to the tools they need to succeed—at a price they can afford.

Who Can Benefit from Wahmcart?

Our customers span a wide range of industries and specializations. You’re a perfect candidate for WAHMCart if you:

- Sell informational products, such as ebooks, audio books, digital videos, or special reports
- Sell products online
- Provide life coaching or corporate coaching services
- Manage a paid newsletter or Ezine
- Sell multiple services or products from several different sites

WAHMCart is perfectly suited for small business owners who need more features than the free, limited shopping carts, but can’t afford the high price tag of the top-tier packages.

Why Wahmcart?

Regina is often asked “Why did you create the Wahmcart full ecommerce solution?” Here is what she had to say:

- When my partner and I first talked about Wahmcart, we wanted to provide a full ecommerce software solution for work at home moms BUT without the huge price tag. Our goal was, and is, to reach the masses with our full ecommerce solution as opposed to only those who can afford a high ticket service comparable to what we offer.
- We believe that small business dominate a large portion of the market place however, a huge percentage of small businesses miss the opportunity to provide a secure environment like Wahmcart due to the lack of funds. Therefore they settle for free carts and not as secure or easy shopping options for potential customers.
- This is why Wahmcart was born. Our goal is to educate the small business individual (sole proprietors) and companies with ecommerce solutions that will allow them to work smarter, not harder while at the same time providing an affordable solution that the “average” person can afford.

Regina’s Recommendation of Recipes For Success

1. Pray for approval, direction and clarity
2. Never, ever trust someone else with your gifts, talents and vision.
3. Always provide quality customer service, products and or services.
4. LISTEN to the concerns and or challenges of your clients
5. Get outside of your own box and network!
6. Align yourself with like-minded individuals, hire a coach or mentor to keep you on track
7. FOCUS
